FINE MILL FOR SALE!

Don't miss this opportunity for an investment! Desiring to give my exclusive time to my farm, as I had to take it back, I will sell to the highest bidder on the premises beginning at 1:30 P. M., on Tuesday, September 12, 1911

The following real estate:
Flour mill of 75 barrel capacity, this mill has four stands of rolls is run by steam power and makes as good flour and meal as can be made.
It is located on the Q. & C. railroad at McKinney, Ky., 15 miles south of Danville and 30 miles north of Somerset, with a spur running to the mill from the main line. Without fear of contradiction I say we have the best market for feed in the state and the best located roller mill.

The mill is five stories high and has just recently been equipped with the most modern machinery from top to bottom. We have an abundant supply of never failing water. It has a large scale for weighing wagon and team, coal sheds, a good barn and has adjoining it a piece of building land with a fine eastern, a well and a concrete cellar on it. I will divide the land and sell it separately or will sell the whole as a whole.

This sale will take place the day following the sale of the beautiful 150 acre farm of A. D. Root.

We have six daily trains and anyone desiring to see this property can get off any of these trains at Mc-Kinney and find us without trouble.

Terms made known on day of sale
J. S. MURPHY, McKinney Ky.
T. D. English, Auct.

job in the telegraph office.

Mr. Jones Spradlin has gone to Nebraska to take a position in a Commercial College there as a teacher of Commercial Branches.

"WOLFORD WAY."

From Stanford to Glasgow Suggested By Columbia News.

(Adair County News.)

It has been suggested that the News present the proposition of building a first-class road from Lincoln or Boyle county to Barren county connecting the Blue grass and Pennycroft section and intersecting the Lincoln way at Glasgow or some other point in that county and that this road be known as the Wolford Way. The suggestion is a good one and is within the ability of the counties though which it would pass.
Barren county is already interested in good roads and as we understand have built several miles in the direction of Edmonston. On the other end of the proposed road a good one exists from Danville to the connection with the Glasgow road is about 50 or 60 miles and could be built in a short time if all our people so determine. Glasgow Edmonston, Columbia, Liberty, Stanford and Danville and all smaller towns along the line could best determine this proposition by a delegated convention selected for this purpose and meet at Columbia, the central point on the line.

The Wolford Way, passing through the "Wolford Kingdom" and connecting the Lincoln Way bringing Blue grass and Pennycroft into one common union would be worth far more than it would cost. Gentlemen, along the line, speak out!
What think you?

THE GOOD OLD DAYS.

We do not know who was guilty of perpetrating the following, but it is certainly good enough to reproduce.
"Faceward, turn backward, Oh, Time, in your flight and given us a maiden pressed proper and right. We are weary of switches and rats, Billy Burke clusters and peach basket huts. Wads of jute hairs in a horrible pile, stacked on their heads to the height of a mile. Something is wrong with the maidens, we fear, give us the girls as they used to appear. Give us the girls who once knew of yore whose curls didn't come from hair-dressing store. Maid-ens who dressed with a sensible view, and just as Dame Nature intended them to. Give us a girl with a figure her own and fashioned divinely by nature alone. Feminine styles getting fiercer each year,—oh, give us the girls as they used to appear. One of the twenty-five-year-old kind; one whose tresses were simple enough—without an addition of make like stuff. Give us the days when the hats women wore were not the real reason that Christian men swore. Over our way such a fair maiden stood—yes, give us the girl as she used to appear.—Robertson
